With Sally

Suddenly the Editor whirled around in his chair and gave us a Black Look.

"Well, Sally," he said in a menacing voice, "I see by last week's Shopper where you have been making some New Year's resolutions."

"Oh . . . oh, yes," we remembered. Our typewriter stopped with a frightened clatter of keys.

"Hmmm-mm" he replied. "And the one about improving your mind. I suppose you remember that one?"

"Why yes," we quavered. "Why yes. As a matter of fact, that's one of our very favorite resolutions."

"Then I'm sure that you will understand," snapped the Editor, "what this is for." He slammed a great encyclopedia down on our desk.

"And I am also sure you will understand," he continued coldly, "what I mean when I tell you that the housewives of Daly City are more interested in something sensible and instructive rather than your hair-brained resolutions Sally," he shouted, pointing a quivering finger at us, "if you can't write a more informative column in the future, I'll . . . I'll . . . "

Well, we guess words failed him. Anyway, they did us. And when we began reading that horrid, musty, heavy old encyclopedia, they failed us even more.

But we took our scissors (well, that is, the Editor's scissors—we couldn't find ours) and dutifully clipped every paragraph out of the encyclopedia that we thought the Editor would like.

Of course we have added our own comments, so the Editor won't think that everything we read goes over our heads, and here is the first column in our new Improvement Campaign.

SAUSAGE BOOTLEGGERS

As strange as it may seem, the manufacture and sale of sausage was forbidden in ancient Rome. However, the Romans of an earlier day were very fond of this viand and the result was that

Team For First Time In Marital Comedy

When a girl "invents" a man just for business reasons and then finds that she really has to marry him, complications are bound to run thick and fast. This is the amusing situation in "Third Finger, Left Hand," which opens Sunday on the Daly City screen with Myrna Loy and Melvyn Douglas together for the first time. The new picture was directed by Robert Z. Leonard whose last hit was "Pride and Prejudice," and the supporting cast features Raymond Walburn, Lee Bowman, Bonita Granville and Felix Bressart.

Companion feature is "Cherokee Strip" with Richard Dix and Florence Rice.

Owner Announces Close-Out Sale At Dress Shop

After four years of serving local women in the apparel business, Mrs. Rhea MacCormac, owner of the Daly City Dress Shop, today announced a close-out sale, preparatory to selling out.

"We have a fine stock of merchandise, all of which has been reduced to prices far below normal," Mrs. MacCormac said. "Featured items among others on sale are hosiery, lingerie, infant wear, dresses, robes and gowns."

'Self-Made' Farmer

Charles McCartney, a farmer near Sigourney, Iowa, uses only articles of his own making. He built his own house, furniture, barn and plow. He and his family wear only goatskin clothing, which he makes himself.

SAVORY MEAT SAUCES

There's a new way to make 'em that's speedy, easy and sure

says Dorothy Greig

SAUCES are one thing that many women avoid making. As a friend of mine once expressed it, "I love them on the dishes I get in restaurants but as for making the fussy, fiddling things myself, no sir!"

Creamy mushroom sauce lends zestful flavor to chopped meat patties.

There's no denying that sauces do demand time, skill and patience—if you start from scratch. But recently we have discovered we don't have to begin at the beginning. We can instead use condensed soups as a base and from them evolve some of the most zestful sauces that ever graced a dish.

You see, condensed soups as they come from the can already contain superb seasonings, skillfully blended. Therefore, the difficult and time consuming part of making the sauces has been done for us. All we need do is add a few extra flourishes.

And a fine sauce does bestow such flavor on a meat dish! Oftentimes it's the making of the dish. Take meat patties, for instance. Creamy mushroom sauce positively glorifies them. And made this new simplified way it's no trouble at all:

Mushroom Sauce

1 can condensed cream of mushroom soup
4 tablespoons milk or light cream

Combine the cream of mushroom soup with the milk and heat. Makes 1¼ cups. Incidentally, this particular sauce is also delicious over many vegetables, but I think I like it best of all as a meat sauce. We all agree that hot tomato sauce does much for corned beef hash, pork chops, veal cutlets and the like.

Well, let's use condensed tomato soup for our sauce. You heat the soup just as it comes from the can and serve it thick and smooth without doing one single other thing to it. Or, for a more spicy sauce, try this:

Spiced Tomato Sauce

1 can condensed tomato soup
2 tablespoons brown sugar
2 teaspoons tarragon vinegar
¼ teaspoon cinnamon, ground
¼ teaspoon cloves

Heat and serve.

And then there is this sauce—delicious for beef meat loaf:

Mock Turtle Sauce

1 can condensed mock turtle soup
6 tablespoons water

Heat and serve.

Caravan Trade

Considerable trade between Russia and China is carried on by caravan.

First Successful Air Flight

The Wright brothers made their first successful airplane flight in 1903.

Auctioneer Is Boss

American courts have held that an auctioneer is not compelled to accept the highest bid, according to Collier's. In a Minnesota case, a house was sold to the first bidder for $675 after the second and only other bidder had offered $680. The auctioneer refused to consider such a trifling increase. So the second bidder sued but lost his case on the ground that no contract exists until the offer to purchase is accepted by the auctioneer.

Kansas City Shakeup

The shakeup of the Kansas City police department has really brought results. Cleanup has extended beyond crime and politics. Now Saturday night baths will be given the—well—here's the story from the beginning. A police captain strolling through a park noticed the fish pond was scummy and the gold fish were mighty dingy. He ordered the water changed and such fish washed every Saturday night in a salt solution to brighten it up a bit.

sausage "bootleggers" established a thriving business.

This is very strange indeed. But Milo does a thriving business in sausage and he doesn't have to be a bootlegger to do it, either. He just sells good sausages.

SALMON SCRAPPLE

An excellent Sunday breakfast or light supper dish is fried salmon scrapple. To 4 cups of hot cornmeal mush, add 2 cups of flaked salmon. Season with salt and pepper and mold. Slice and fry when wanted.

How can we keep our mind on fried mush when Melvyn Douglas is coming to the Daly City theatre, Sunday, Monday, and Tuesday? Myrna Loy, too.

SQUASH FROM INDIANS

Squash is a native American vegetable. Early explorers found the Indians already using squash and, oddly enough, since that time there has not been a single new variety of squash developed.

All right, all right, so we aren't as smart as the Indians. That's the kind of stuff that you learn in an encyclopedia. Well, the Indians didn't have cars, did they? And they didn't have nice repair stations like Mather Brothers, either, where they could get their brakes adjusted.

SHUNNED POTATOES

The potato, now one of our indispensable foodstuffs, was formerly regarded as harmful and neither edible for man nor beast. New Englanders burned stocks of potatoes each spring so cattle would not eat them and be poisoned.

We bet that if they were as good as the potatoes at Westlake Market this week, that the cattle wept salty tears when they watched the bonfires.

SHRINKING FRUIT

There is so much of shrinkage when drying fruit that it requires from three to seven pounds of fresh fruit to produce one pound of dried fruit.

Why would anyone care about whether a banana shrank or not? But dresses—that's different. That's why we always play safe and buy our clothes at the Daly City Dress shop. If encyclopedias would tell you sensible things like that, we'd have more respect for them.

POTATO FROM PERU

Believed to be a native of Peru, the potato was mentioned in Spanish books in 1552 as the "Papa." Walter Raleigh cultivated the potato on his estate near Cork, Ireland.

Yes, and Sir Walter Raleigh got his coat all muddy, too, and I hope his wife remembered to send it to Beeson Cleaners.

BEEF KNIGHTED

As odd as it may seem a sirloin of beef derives its name from the fact that it was once knighted. King James II once enjoyed this cut of beef so much he touched it with his sword and knighted it

The largest salmon ever caught in southeastern Alaska weighed 120 pounds. The fish was 53½ inches long and 36½ inches around. It was caught in a net. The previous record salmon weighed 116 pounds.

"Sir Loin". The name has remained ever since.

Well, we think that was very silly. When we enjoy one of those thick juicy steaks from Lucca Ravioli company, we just eat it up real fast and don't worry about giving it fancy names. The idea! Letting his steak get cold like that!

PASSION FRUIT

Egg-like in size and shape, passion fruit grows extensively in Australia and is also cultivated in California. The meat is a yellow pulp with many black seeds, and is generally eaten with a spoon.

If you're fresh out of spoons, we know where you can get some—silver, too. H. H. Smith gives away free Rogers coupons with every purchase.

CHEESE

In southern Europe cheeses are put outdoors to harden and cure. The cheeses are placed in iron cages to protect them against birds, thieves and other hazards.

We're a hazard to cheese, too. Especially the kind sold at Robertson's Egg Store. That's why it's lucky Robertson charges a low price so that he doesn't need to use an iron cage to protect his cheese.

PINEAPPLES

Square shouldered pineapples are slightly more economical than long tapering ones, as they cut to better advantage. A pineapple is ripe when the spines pull out easily.

If you're hungry like we are, you'll be glad to know that Farmers Market has luscious fresh pineapple. And have you tried their new youngberry ice-cream pie?

EXPERT'S SAUCE

A well-known cooking expert declares that it is a mistake to use water for sauces as it adds nothing but "bagth." For good sauces, she says, always use broth, consomme, meat stock or wine.

If that "well-known cooking expert" was in earnest, she should have specified wine from Vireno's famous cellars, smooth and mellow.

COFFEE TASTING

Coffee tasting has been developed into such a fine art that the blindfold test is employed by experts to detect gradations of blend.

We think this blindfold stuff is being overdone. Who would need to play Blindman's Buff to know that Byrne's radios were the best on the market?

GOLD FLOUR

During the gold rush days in California flour actually was almost worth its weight in gold. The marking of flour sacks with "X's" started during the gold rush days in California, not for the purpose of marking quality but rather to indicate price. A sack marked "XXXX", therefore, sold for forty dollars.

That's why we are glad that we can get our "grub stake" at Daly City Cut Rate Market, where they'll give you a whole van-load of flour for forty dollars.

BROWN GRAVY

An excellent way to make gravy brown is to toast a slice of bread very brown, then crumble up and add to the gravy. Just before serving, the gravy should be strained to remove any pieces of bread that may not have dissolved while the gravy was simmering.

Yes, but it seems a pity to ruin good bread that way. When we get one of those fresh, crusty, sweet-smelling loaves from Geneva Bakery, we don't feel like throwing it into the gravy.

Bicycle Baby Trailer

An engineering works employee at Ashtabula, Ohio, has devised a "baby trailer" to be attached to bicycles or tricycles. Mike Zallmont, seeking a patent on his device, says the "three-section" trailer will enable people to take the baby along on bicycle trips.

Workers' Gas Mask

A new oxygen mask delivering a mixture of about 50 per cent oxygen with air, to be used by mental workers as a protection against fatigue, was recently described to the American Psychological association by Dr. Arthur H. Gills of Cincinnati.

Man and Cake Affinities

—By Frances Lee Barton—

GIVE a man some good home-made cake to crunch and he's your friend—in fact this cake will make anybody happy. Here's a homemade cake "like mother used to make." Try it on your family and guests and watch the reaction.

Chocolate Apricot Dessert Cake

2 cups sifted cake flour; 2 teaspoons double-acting baking powder; ¼ teaspoon soda; ½ teaspoon salt; ½ cup butter or other shortening; 1¼ cups sugar; 2 eggs, unbeaten; 3 squares unsweetened chocolate, melted; ¾ cup milk; 1 teaspoon vanilla; ¾ cup cooked, dried apricots, drained and coarsely cut; 2 tablespoons confectioners' sugar; ¼ teaspoon vanilla; 1 cup cream, whipped.

Sift flour once, measure, add baking powder, soda, and salt, and sift together three times. Cream butter thoroughly, add sugar gradually, and cream together until light and fluffy. Add eggs, one at a time, beating thoroughly after each. Then add chocolate and blend. Add flour, alternately with milk, a small amount at a time, beating after each addition until smooth. Add vanilla and apricots, mixing thoroughly. Bake in two greased 8-inch layer pans in moderate oven (350° F.) 30 minutes. Add confectioners' sugar and vanilla to whipped cream. Spread between layers and on top of cake. To decorate, dip ends of apricot halves in melted chocolate and arrange on top of cake.

Flounder House

A flounder house is a house with one wall entirely blank, built against a party line, and a single pitch roof sloping downward toward the opposite, lower side, thus shedding water on the owner's property. This type was often used for the rear extension of residences. They were built during the Eighteenth century. There are some of them now in Alexandria and Philadelphia.

CARTWHEEL HAT with shirt and shorts is Mary Lou Cook's favorite play outfit when she weekends at Palm Springs, Calif. The Columbia network dramatic starlet was caught by the camera as she was about to tie her white canvas and navy blue wedgies. The straw cartwheel keeps her eyes shaded while she tans her legs. The white linen shorts are tailored for perfect fit and worn with a red, blue and green printed blouse.

Strange Street Names

Lisbon in Portugal has some strange street names, including the Street of the Little Englishman, Street of the Mother of War, the Sad Ugly One Street, and the Alley of the Faithful of God.

Arbitrary Date Line

The International Date Line is an irregular line which is drawn somewhat arbitrarily on the map of the Pacific ocean, near the 180th meridian of longitude. This line marks the places where navigators "change their date" on the trans-Pacific voyage. The line is drawn on the map in a general north-and-south direction, separating the islands of the Pacific ocean in such a manner that all those in the east carry the same date as the United States, and those in the west the same date as Japan and Australia.

War Casualties Listed

First casualties of the next war were the hens of Joe Mikulich, and he wants to know what the government is going to do in the way of reparations. While limbering up for Armageddon, if and when it comes, the field artillery of the California National Guard planted an explosive shell in Joe's chicken coop near San Pablo. There was heavy loss of life among the feathered noncombatants, and the survivors, suffering from shell shock, have not laid an egg since.

Wild Bill's Grave

Wild Bill Hickok's grave and that of the equally famous Calamity Jane, in the old "Boot Hill cemetery" above Deadwood Gulch, Deadwood, S. D., are visited annually by thousands of tourists.

Silk From Corn Meal

Zein, a protein-like substance from which artificial silk is now being spun, is made from corn meal. Zein filaments can be twisted into yarns from which many kinds of textile fabrics can be woven. The artificial silk made from corn can be dyed to any color desired.

Valuable Copper Sludge

Precious metals are recovered from the sludge of copper refineries, says Industrial and Engineering Chemistry. Cadmium is a by-product of zinc smelting. Selenium, now widely used in making ruby-colored glass, was once a waste of copper refineries, and antimonial lead is produced by working up the scum from softening furnaces in lead refining.

Peace or War

Speaking of shot and shell, Diego Carrales Noya, Spanish civil war veteran, found peace deadlier than war. Noya went through the entire conflict without even a scratch. But upon returning to peacetime pursuits he got himself a job, was killed five hours later when a rock fell on him.

Impulses Influence Life

It is much easier to act firmly and bravely under a strong impulse than it is to restrain an impulse when called upon to do so. Of all the battles of life there is not one that requires so much real courage as that silent battle with self, which every dutiful person finds it frequently necessary to wage.

Cermak Memorial

The Cermak Memorial plaque, in Bayfront park at Miami, bears the following inscription: "I'm glad it was me instead of you." Anton J. Cermak, mayor of Chicago—Born May 9, 1873, Kladno, Czecho-Slovakia—Died March 6, 1933, Miami, Fla. It was here February 15, 1933, that an attempt was made to assassinate Franklin Delano Roosevelt. This shot mortally wounded Anton J. Cermak who then uttered the immortal words quoted above. Dedicated March 6, 1939.

House Fly Massacre

Pupils of the ninth grade at Tiffin, Ohio, told that every housefly killed now means millions less later in the season, killed 5,326 of the insects in one week. They computed that their victims would have been ancestors of 49,336,000,000,000,000 buzzing, disease-breeding descendants by next fall.

Polar FROZEN Foods

STRAWBERRIES - PEACHES - GREEN PEAS - ASPARAGUS TIPS - STRINGLESS GREEN BEANS - GOLDEN BANTAM CORN ON COB - CORN, CUT OFF COB

Why Polar Frosted Foods Are Becoming More and More Popular—

PLUCKED AT THE PEAK OF PERFECTION

Centered in the nation's garden spot—the fertile farm areas of the Pacific Northwest—Polar packing plants obtain only the finest fruits and vegetables. Strict supervision is maintained in seed selection, planting and growing. Harvesting is done only when the pack is tender and sun-ripened. Fast Polar trucks whisk the pick of the pack to the nearby freezing plant. In a matter of minutes the pack is cleaned, graded, frozen and packed—all the goodness and flavor permanently imprisoned until ready to use.
